

Dear Team,

March 2024

WOW! What a busy time for us since Christmas! God has blessed us with many faithful Prayer Partners and Donors to our Mission. THANK YOU!

As we visit Clubs in Maryland, DC, and Virginia (DMV), we are still astonished at the number of kids and Leaders engaged in Awana Clubs. I praise God for everyone building God's Word into the next generations. Many Clubs are now reporting that they are back (or near) the pre-Covid volume of kids. But that was 3 years ago – these are different kids! Yes, God is calling another generation to follow Him.

I recently visited the Awana Club at Spotswood Baptist Church in Fredericksburg, VA. Just like the Saints of 2 Corinthians 9, they shared, and gave cheerfully an unusual gift. I left praising God for a mountain of paper products, laundry, bath supplies, and baby wipes. The abundance of this gift will be shared with those saints in need in our community.

2 Corinthians 9:9, "He has distributed freely, he has given to the poor; his righteousness endures forever."

I thank God is showing Himself more now than ever before.

In His service,

Chris and Sandy Mikesh
